

Directions to Rogers Memorial Chapel at Tulane University (during construction on Broadway St.)

From on-campus (Parking and walking):

- Park on Newcomb Place at Willow St. Public parking is available after 5pm along Newcomb Place via the Willow Street entrance. (Parking may be limited.)
 - After parking on Newcomb Pl., walk until you reach the Newcomb Cir. sign (right at Dixon Hall). Make a right on Newcomb Cir.
 - Keep walking about two blocks, while passing Dixon Hall and McWilliams Hall. Walk until you see a building with stained glass windows (Rogers Memorial Chapel).

-OR-

- Park on Newcomb Place at Freret St. There are limited public parking spaces in the Newcomb Place horseshoe parking lot off Freret St.
 - Walk past Dixon Hall, then make a left at the Newcomb Cir. sign.
 - Keep walking about two blocks on Newcomb Cir., while passing Dixon Hall and McWilliams Hall. Walk until you see a building with stained glass windows (Rogers Memorial Chapel).

From off-campus (Parking and walking):

The Rogers Memorial Chapel entrance gate is located at 1229 Broadway St. at Oak Street. The chapel entrance is on campus, facing Newcomb Hall and next to Greenbaum House.

Please note: Broadway St., between Freret and Plum Streets, is currently closed to vehicular traffic due to street construction. This road work impacts the availability of neighborhood, off-street parking, which may be limited.

GPS and rideshare:

- Request “Rogers Memorial Chapel” or “1229 Broadway St.”