

THE PRIMA MEMORIAL LECTURE SERIES

Guthrie P. Ramsey Jr.

What I Did with Musicology and What it Gave Me Back

Guthrie P. Ramsey Jr. is a Guggenheim Fellow, music historian, pianist, composer, and author, renowned for his work in music and musicology specializing in African American studies. He is a Professor Emeritus of Music at the University of Pennsylvania and is CEO of Musiqology Media Group, a production and consulting agency that helps artists produce their best work and tell their story successfully.

Ramsey's books include Who Hears Here: On Black Music Pasts and Present (2022); The Amazing Bud Powell: Black Genius, Jazz History and the Challenge of Bebop (2013); and Race Music: Black Cultures from Bebop to Hip-Hop (2003).

The Prima Memorial Lecture Series presents discourse and discussion around American popular music, including its origins in American jazz.
